

Moulinet (Alpes-Maritimes): In the center the church steeple rises, below was and still is the post office. The yellowish house in front was the Hôtel de la Poste, today converted into apartments. The adjacent house just behind with the red sunshades in front was the Hotel de Paris (and is today the Bar le Trou du Renard).

Moulinet, black-and-white picture post card from the 1920s